

Abraham Lincoln Book Shop, Inc. Book List, June, 2022

Our stock of antiquarian books is larger than we can feature on our website and given the one-of-a-kind nature of these books, we cannot maintain any comprehensive list of what we have to offer. That is one reason why we encourage you to visit the Book Shop. However, we also periodically publish book lists featuring selected titles that we feel are of value to collectors of Lincolniana, Civil War, Presidential and Americana books.

Since this month is the anniversary of the famed Battle of Little Big Horn, we will feature a number of fine and collectable books about George A. Custer and that fascinating event.

All books listed here are one-of-a-kind and subject to prior sale. Terms of sale, including shipping charges, are detailed at the end of this list or on our website – www.ALincolnBookShop.com - listed under the category called "Policies." Again, due to the large stock of out-of-print books we have, these books are not sold through our online sales system. If you wish to inquire about or order a title, please call us during business hours at (312) 944-3085, or contact us through our website. Our staff will be happy to discuss or more fully describe any book you see here.

American History Books Out of Print, Collectable, and Desirable Featuring Books on Custer and Little Big Horn

Ashdown, Paul, and Caudill, Edward. THE MOSBY MYTH: A CONFEDERATE HERO IN LIFE AND LEGEND. Wilmington, DE: Scholarly Resources, 2002. 1st edition, 231p., frontispiece, illustrations, maps. Colonel John Singleton Mosby holds a singular place in the American imagination. He emerged from the Civil War as the irrepressible rebel with a cause, the horseman who emerges from the forest to protect the embattled farmer and his household and brings retribution to the invader. Mosby was the fabled "Gray Ghost" of the Confederacy, a mythic cavalry officer who operated with virtual impunity behind Union lines near Washington. Within his lifetime, and continuing to the present, Mosby has been appropriated as a cultural symbol. But why has Mosby become a figure of our collective imagination while other heroes of the conflict have not? This is the first book devoted to explaining Mosby's place in American culture, myth, and legend. "Paul Ashdown and Ed Caudill provide an outstanding, thoroughly researched and entertaining analysis of the Mosby legend in American popular culture." - James A. Ramage. As new. Signed by both authors on bookplate. ISBN $60.00

Brennan, Patrick. SECESSIONVILLE: ASSAULT ON CHARLESTON. Campbell, CA: Savas Beatie, 1996. 1st edition, 416p., illustrations, map. Pat Brennan, a former Chicago journalist, spent years digging for original material and tramping the fields around Charleston to bring the first full-length treatment of this campaign of June 1862. The federal defeat there was a severe setback in the attempt to capture Charleston. A fascinating study of an important, but overlooked, early Civil War battle. Very good; dust jacket. Signed. ISBN $39.95

LITTLE BIG HORN

Brininstool, E.A. TROOPERS WITH CUSTER: HISTORIC INCIDENTS OF THE BATTLE OF THE LITTLE BIG HORN. Mechanicsburg: Stackpole, 1952. 1st edition, 343p., illustrations, plates. E. A. Brininstool was a long-time journalist and historian who wrote volumes on the Custer fight and other episodes of Western history. He was among the most prolific writers on Little Big Horn. In 1952, Brininstool revised his 1925 work, A Trooper With Custer into this valuable publication. Luther High Spot #78. Very good; dust jacket. SKU 007386 $55.00

LITTLE BIG HORN

Carroll, John M., editor. THE BENTEEN-GOLDIN LETTERS ON CUSTER AND HIS LAST BATTLE. New York: Liveright, 1974. Limited edition 706/1,000, 312p., folding frontispiece, slip case. The editor commissioned artist L. F. Bjorklund to create an original painting for a folding frontispiece called The Battle Water Party. The letters between Frederick Benteen and Theodore Goldin are among the most important primary sources relating to the activities of the 7th Cavalry on the fatal June 25, 1876. Near fine condition. Signed and numbered by the editor. SKU 003063 $95.00

LITTLE BIG HORN

Darling, Roger. A SAD AND TERRIBLE BLUNDER. GENERALS TERRY AND CUSTER AT THE LITTLE BIG HORN: NEW DISCOVERIES. Vienna, VA: Potomac-Western Press, 1990. 1st edition, 295p., illustrations, maps. Darling makes a detailed military analysis of the campaign with strong opinions on Custer's decisions on his last, fateful day. As new. SKU 007704 $85.00

Dirck, Brian. LINCOLN THE LAWYER. Urbana and Chicago: University of Illinois Press, 2007. 2nd Printing, 228p. Despite historians' focus on the man as president and politician, Abraham Lincoln lived most of his adult life as a practicing lawyer. It was as a lawyer that he fed his family, made his reputation, bonded with Illinois, and began his political career. In this important book on lawyer Lincoln, Brian Dirck explores the origins of Lincoln's desire to practice law, his legal education, his partnerships with John Stuart, Stephen Logan, and William Herndon, and the maturation of his far-flung practice in the 1840's and 1850's. Dirck provides a context for law as it was practiced in mid-century Illinois, evaluates Lincoln's merits as an attorney, examines Lincoln's clientele, his circuit practice, his views on legal ethics, and the supposition that he never defended a client he knew to be guilty. Dirck also shows readers how Lincoln charged his clients, how he was paid, and how he addressed judge and jury. Excellent; dust jacket. SKU 002782-04 $35.00

Hardorff, Richard G., editor. WASHITA MEMORIES: EYEWITNESS VIEWS OF CUSTER'S ATTACK ON BLACK KETTLE'S VILLAGE. Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 2006. 1st edition, 474p., maps. Hardorff collected voluminous amounts of personal accounts, richly annotated, of the Army's winter campaign of 1868, resulting in the destruction of Black Kettle's Cheyenne village on the Washita River. ISBN $34.95

Harris, William C. LINCOLN'S RISE TO THE PRESIDENCY. Lawrence: University Press of Kansas. 1st edition, 412p. Although most scholars have labeled Abraham Lincoln a moderate, William C. Harris reveals that Lincoln was, by his own admission, a conservative who revered the Founders and advocated "adherence to the old and tried". By emphasizing the conservative bend that guided Lincoln's political evolution --- his background as a Henry Clay Whig, his rural ties, his cautious nature, and the racial and political realities of central Illinois --- Harris provides fresh insight into Lincoln's political ideas and activities and portrays him as morally opposed to slavery but fundamentally conservative in his political strategy against it. Challenging prevailing views, Harris depicts Lincoln as increasingly driven not so much by his own ambitions as by his antislavery sentiments and his fear of the republic in the hands of Douglas Democrats, and he shows how the unique political skills Lincoln developed in Illinois shaped his wartime leadership abilities. "A fine, well-written study that provides sophisticated and balanced insights." --- Phillip Shaw Paludan. Lightly cocked; light shelf wear; else very good. Signed. ISBN $34.95

Hearn, Chester C. ADMIRAL DAVID GLASGOW FARRAGUT: THE CIVIL WAR YEARS. Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1998. 1st edition, 382p., illustrations, maps. No admiral in America's Civil War fought with more distinction than David Glasgow Farragut, the first admiral of the U.S. Navy, and yet he has been curiously neglected by biographers. Noted historian Chester Hearn's use of previously untapped family and archival records make this long-anticipated study worth waiting for. His history not only fully describes Farragut's extraordinary naval exploits but also his lifelong involvement with Captain David Porter, his foster father, and David Dixon Porter, his foster brother - making this the most complete and illuminating picture ever assembled of one of America's greatest fighting heroes. Hearn's description of the Battle of Mobile Bay is especially thrilling. As new; dust jacket. Signed bookplate. SKU 004330 $45.00

Keleher, William A. TURMOIL IN NEW MEXICO 1846-1868. Santa Fe: The Rydal Press, 1952. 1st edition, 534p., frontispiece, illustrations by Ernest L. Blumenshien & Oscar Berninghaus, plates, map on end pages. A scarce military history of New Mexico and Arizona. Kearny's Santa Fe Campaign, the Confederate invasion of New Mexico, Carleton's California Column, and Navaho and Apache Wars are covered. Light sun; minor damp stain; else very good. SKU 006835 $45.00

LITTLE BIG HORN

Kuhlman, Charles. LEGEND INTO HISTORY AND DID CUSTER DISOBEY ORDERS AT THE BATTLE OF THE LITTLE BIG HORN? Mechanicsburg: Strackpole, 1994. 1st of this edition, 319p., illustrations, maps. Two classic works in Custeriana by an odd but important scholar, published together with a new introduction by Brian C. Pohanka. Luther High Spots #110 & #113. As new; in dust jacket. SKU004246-01 $30.00

Marvel, William. RACE OF THE SOIL: THE NINTH NEW HAMPSHIRE REGIMENT IN THE CIVIL WAR. Wilmington: Broadfoot, 1988. 1st edition, 534(2)p., frontispiece, illustrations, portraits, maps. A well-researched history of a IX Corps regiment by the biographer of Ambrose Burnside. Battle honors for the Ninth include South Mountain, Antietam, Grant's 1864 campaign, Petersburg, the Crater, Peeble's Farm and others. Excellent condition in dust jacket. $35.00

Salecker, Gene Eric. DISASTER ON THE MISSISSIPPI: THE “SULTANA” EXPLOSION, APRIL 27, 1865. Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1996. 1st edition, 346(2)p., illustrations, maps, paperback. At two o’clock in the morning on April 27, 1865, seven miles north of Memphis on the Mississippi, the sidewheel steamboat “Sultana’s” boilers suddenly exploded. Legally registered to carry 376 people, the boat was packed with 2,100 recently released Union POWs. Over 1,700 people died, making it the worst marine disaster in U.S. history. This book looks at the disaster through the eyes of the victims themselves. It offers a concise, minute-by minute account with new research on the cause of the explosion and its effect on different parts of the boat. “Sultana” expert and collector Gene Salecker has collected material from hundreds of letters, period newspapers, stories, and other sources. He offers unprecedented details about the captain’s handling of the steamboat and corrects some long-held myths about the placement of the soldiers on the “Sultana” and newspaper coverage of the disaster. A large portion of the book covers rescue attempts and the aftermath of the disaster. Included are many rare photographs and a corrected list of those on board. This is a major work. As new. ISBN $29.95

LITTLE BIG HORN

Scott, Douglas D., Fox, Richard A., Jr., Connor, Melissa & Harmon, Dick. ARCHAEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE BATTLE OF LITTLE BIGHORN. Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 1991. 2nd printing, 309p., illustrations, maps, diagrams. No other battle in U.S. history has received quite as much micro-study as Little Big Horn. A grass fire at the battle site in 1983 revealed an enormous amount of new archaeological evidence, and this study by Scott, et. al., represents the fascinating outcome of that rare opportunity to study the battlefield. Excellent; dust jacket. SKU 007701 $65.00

Simpson, Harold B. GAINES’ MILL TO APPOMATTOX: WACO & McLENNAN COUNTY IN HOOD’S TEXAS BRIGADE. Waco: Texian Press, 1988. 1963. 2nd “Silver Anniversary” edition 294p., illustrations, maps. Introduction by Roger N. Conger. The story of Co. E, 4th Texas Infantry, Hood’s Texas Brigade, who also fought at Second Manassas, Antietam, Gettysburg, Chickamauga, and the Wilderness. Not in Dornbusch. Excellent; dust jacket. SKU 004448 $40.00

Taylor, Paul. “THE MOST COMPLETE POLITICAL MACHINE EVER KNOWN”: THE NORTH’S UNION LEAGUES IN THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR. Kent, OH: 2018. 1st edition, 322p., illustrations. The Most Complete Political Machine Ever Known examines the Union League movement. Often portrayed as a mere footnote to the Civil War, the Union League’s influence on the Northern home front was far more important and consequential than previously considered. The Union League and its various offshoots spread rapidly across the North, and in this first comprehensive examination of the leagues, Taylor discusses what made them so effective. As new; dust jacket. ISBN $49.95

Taylor, Paul. ORLANDO M. POE: CIVIL WAR ENGINEER. Kent, OH: Kent State University Press, 2009. 1st edition, 354p., illustrations, maps. The first biography of Sherman's chief engineer and the man whose engineering work changed Great Lakes navigation forever. An 1856 West Point graduate, Poe commanded the Second Michigan Infantry in the Peninsula Campaign and led brigades at Second Bull Run and Fredericksburg. He was then sent west and became one of the Union heroes in the defense of Knoxville, and served under William T. Sherman, who appointed him chief engineer to oversee the burning of Atlanta and the March to the Sea. Though technically only a captain at war's end, Poe was ultimately breveted brigadier general for his bravery and service and was one of Sherman's most valued subordinates. After the war, Poe supervised the design and construction of numerous Great Lakes lighthouses, all of which are still in service, then returned to his adopted home in Detroit, where he began planning his ultimate post-Civil War engineering achievement: the design and construction of what would become the largest shipping lock in the world at Sault St. Marie, Michigan. Paul Taylor brings to life for the first time the story of one of the nineteenth century's most overlooked military heroes. As new; dust jacket. ISBN $65.00
