

Abraham Lincoln Book Shop, Inc. Book List, July, 2022

Our stock of antiquarian books is larger than we can feature on our website and given the one-of-a-kind nature of these books, we cannot maintain any comprehensive list of what we have to offer. That is one reason why we encourage you to visit the Book Shop. However, we also periodically publish book lists featuring selected titles that we feel are of value to collectors of Lincolniana, Civil War, Presidential and Americana books.

Since July is the anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, we will feature a number of fine and collectable books about that. We will also feature some nice, original unit histories from the veterans who fought there.

All books listed here are one-of-a-kind and subject to prior sale. Terms of sale, including shipping charges, are detailed at the end of this list or on our website – www.ALincolnBookShop.com - listed under the category called “Policies.” Again, due to the large stock of out-of-print books we have, these books are not sold through our online sales system. If you wish to inquire about or order a title, please call us during business hours at (312) 944-3085, or contact us through our website. Our staff will be happy to discuss or more fully describe any book you see here.

9th New York Cavalry. McPherson’s Ridge.

Cheney, Newell. HISTORY OF THE NINTH REGIMENT, NEW YORK VOLUNTEER CAVALRY. WAR OF 1861 TO 1865. COMPILED FROM LETTERS, DIARIES, RECOLLECTIONS AND OFFICIAL RECORDS... Asheville, NY: Berrybrook Press, 1998. Second Printing of 300 copies, 423(7)p., frontispiece, illustrations, (Dornbusch 127). Cheney’s uncommon history relates the story of John Buford’s Brigade and their heroic defense of McPherson’s Ridge and the tale of old John Burns amongst other tales. Roster included. As new. SKU 004558 SOLD

Corby, William. MEMOIRS OF CHAPLAIN LIFE: THREE YEARS WITH THE IRISH BRIGADE IN THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Edited by Lawrence Frederick Kohl. New York: Fordham University Press, 1992. 1st edition thus, 412p., frontispiece, plates. (D-431, Eicher #463). This is the classic Irish Brigade memoir, and one of the best such reminiscences by the Catholic Priest and Chaplain of the “Irish Brigade”, who later became President of the University of Notre Dame and is immortalized signaling “fair catch” both there and at Gettysburg. Kohl’s edition includes a scholarly introduction plus appendices relating to poetry about Corby and Gettysburg, and Paul Henry Wood’s famous painting Absolution Under Fire. As new. SKU 007811 SOLD

1st Massachusetts. Emmitsburg Road.

Cudworth, Warren H. HISTORY OF THE FIRST REGIMENT (MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY), FROM THE 25TH OF MAY, 1861, TO THE 25TH OF MAY, 1864; INCLUDING BRIEF REFERENCES TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Boston: Walker, Fuller, and Company, 1866. 1st edition, 528p., illustrations, (Dornbusch-80). A remarkably interesting unit history for having been written directly after the war. The 1st Massachusetts was part of Sickles' III Corps and fought along the Emmitsburg Road on the afternoon of July 2, 1863. The book was written by the regimental chaplain, and "this useful volume is a reservoir of data on the Eastern campaigns through the summer of 1864", according to Allan Nevins. Light sunning; front hinges starting; light foxing; light chipping of extremities; else very good. Includes attractive 1893 gift inscription. SKU 000430 $325.00

Cuomo, Mario M., and Holzer, Harold, eds. LINCOLN ON DEMOCRACY. New York: HarperCollins, 1990. 1st edition, 416p., frontispiece, illustrations. One of the greatest writers among American presidents, here, collected for the first time, are Abraham Lincoln's memorable expressions on those subjects closest to his political soul: Equality, freedom, and self-determination. LINCOLN ON DEMOCRACY documents the development of Lincoln as he matured from local politician to Great Emancipator. Includes essays by Gabor S. Boritt, James M. McPherson, Mark E. Neely, Jr., and others. Very good; dust jacket. ISBN-01 $25.00

Duff, John J. A. LINCOLN, PRAIRIE LAWYER. New York: Rinehart & Co., 1960. 1st edition, 443p.; illustrations. A carefully researched account of Lincoln's circuit practice from 1837-1861. Very good; dust jacket lightly chipped. SKU 000177-06 $25.00

Gaff, Alan D. ON MANY A BLOODY FIELD: FOUR YEARS IN THE IRON BRIGADE. Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 1996. 1st edition, 618p., illustrations, maps. Alan Gaff, author of two other books on the Iron Brigade (Brave Men's Tears and If This is War), follows one of the Civil War's most famous combat organizations - Company B, 19th Indiana Vols. - from recruitment through mustering out, from the tedium of camp to the excitement of battle. Formed into the Iron Brigade with the 2nd, 6th, and 7th Wisconsin, these Hoosier soldiers fought their first real battle at Brawner Farm. Over four difficult years they fought on many a bloody field: Second Bull Run, South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, Cold Harbor, Petersburg, and many more. Gaff recounts, with meticulous care, the experience of war from the soldier's perspective, often in the words of the men themselves. As new; dust jacket. ISBN $34.95

Gallagher, Gary W., ed. THE FIRST DAY AT GETTYSBURG: ESSAYS ON CONFEDERATE AND UNION LEADERSHIP. Kent: Kent State University Press, 1992. 1st edition, 173p., frontispiece(map), illustrations, maps. A thought-provoking compilation in the tradition of ANTIETAM and STRUGGLE FOR THE SHENANDOAH. "...specialists and buffs will delight in THE FIRST DAY AT GETTYSBURG. There are fresh ideas here... it will be impossible to think or write about Gettysburg without confronting these essays and their implications." - Emory M. Thomas. Contributors include Alan T. Nolan on Robert E. Lee; Gallagher on A.P. Hill and Richard S. Ewell; A. Wilson Greene on O.O. Howard and the XI Corps; and Robert K. Krick on the failure of Confederate Brigade leadership. Signed on bookplate by all contributors. Minor wear to dust jacket; else very good. Scarce! SKU 004124 SOLD

Gottfried, Bradley M. THE MAPS OF GETTYSBURG: THE ATLAS OF THE GETTYSBURG CAMPAIGN, JUNE 3-JULY 13, 1863. New York and El Dorado Hills, CA: Savas Beatie, 2007. 1st edition revised, 384p., color maps. More academic and photographic accounts of the battle of Gettysburg exist than for all other battles of the Civil War combined --- and for good reason. The three days of maneuver, attack, and counterattack consisted of scores of encounters, from corps-size actions to small unit engagements. Gottfried plows new ground in the study of the campaign by breaking down the entire campaign in 146 detailed full page original maps. These cartographic creations bore down to the regimental level, offering a unique and fascinating approach to studying what may have been the climactic battle of the war. Keyed to each map is detailed text about the unit, personnel, movements, and combat. Signed bookplate; very good; dust jacket. SKU 007335-01 $75.00

8th Illinois Cavalry. The First Shot at Herr's Ridge.

Hard, Abner. HISTORY OF THE EIGHTH CAVALRY REGIMENT, ILLINOIS VOLUNTEERS, DURING THE GREAT REBELLION. Dayton: Morningside, 1996. Reprint, 391p., frontispiece, illustrations, (Dornbusch 4048). An excellent narrative by the regimental surgeon. The 8th Illinois Cavalry opened the Battle of Gettysburg on the skirmish line at Herr's Ridge. Introduction and extra illustration in this edition by the long-time 8th Illinois Cavalry collector Marshall Krolick. As new; dust jacket. SKU 004977 SOLD

4th Pennsylvania Cavalry. Cemetery Ridge.

Hyndman, William. HISTORY OF A CAVALRY COMPANY, A COMPLETE RECORD OF COMPANY "A," 4th PENN'A CAVALRY, AS IDENTIFIED WITH THAT REGIMENT, AND WITH THE SECOND BRIGADE, SECOND DIVISION, CAVALRY CORPS, IN ALL THE CAMPAIGNS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, DURING THE LATE CIVIL WAR. Philadelphia: James B. Rodgers Co., 1870. 1st edition, 343p., (Dornbusch 50). A good, observant memoir by an officer in the Cavalry Corps of the Army of the Potomac. A unique unit history for being the chronicle of a company. Includes informative appendix. The company was organized by Captain, later General, William E. Doster. Light chipping of extremities with minor loss at the top and bottom of spine; lightly rubbed; lightly bumped; dampstain; else very good. Scarce. Bright & beautifully gilt! SKU 000531 $475.00

Jackson, Horatio Nelson. DEDICATION OF THE STATUE OF BREVET MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM WELLS AND THE OFFICERS AND MEN OF THE FIRST REGIMENT VERMONT CAVALRY ON THE BATTLEFIELD OF GETTYSBURG, JULY 3, 1913. Burlington: Privately Printed, 1914. 1st edition, 225p., frontispiece, Facsimiles, illustrations, top edge gilt, (Dornbusch-23). Documenting the dedication of the Wells statue on the site of Farnsworth's charge near Round Top, with important material relating to that chapter of Gettysburg. The 1st Vermont Cavalry is among "Fox's Fighting 300" regiments. Previous owner signature; light foxing; light rub; light chipping of extremities; else very good with an attractive and bright gilt device on front cover. SKU 004120 $55.00

153rd Pennsylvania. Blocher's Knoll.

Kiefer, William R. HISTORY OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-THIRD REGIMENT PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS INFANTRY WHICH WAS RECRUITED IN NORTHAMPTON COUNTY, PA, 1862-1863. Easton: The Chemical Publishing, 1909. 1st edition, 352p., frontispiece, illustrations, plates. Portraits, folding map, (Dornbusch 361). A useful collection of personal observations by Kiefer and regimental comrades. The 153rd Pennsylvania was in XI Corps at Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. Their monument stands atop Blocher's Knoll, and they bore the brunt of the crushing attack by Early's Division on the afternoon of July 1. Lightly sunned at spine; light chipping of extremities; light soiling of boards; small gouge on rear board; hinges shaken and cracking at rear; folding map detached but present; else very good. SKU 006560 $150.00

Laine, J. Gary, and Penny, Morris M. LAW'S ALABAMA BRIGADE IN THE WAR BETWEEN THE UNION AND THE CONFEDERACY. Shippensburg: White Mane, 1996. 1st edition, 458p., illustrations, maps. "Laine's and Penny's history of Law's Alabama Brigade belongs on every Civil War student's bookshelf alongside Alan Nolan's THE IRON BRIGADE, John Pullen's TWENTIETH MAINE, and William Jordan's RED DIAMOND REGIMENT. This thoroughly documented, well-written brigade history chronicles the course of each regiment which eventually became the Alabama Brigade from First Manassas through Appomattox. Excellent maps and meticulous attention to detail bring to life the brigade's participation in every major battle in the East, including its often-overlooked role at Cold Harbor in June of 1864. The authors' chapter on Gettysburg deserves particular praise for its nonpartisan portrayal of the action around the Devil's Den and Little Round Top." - John Michael Priest. Light shelf wear on jacket; else very good. ISBN SOLD 71st Pennsylvania. The Angle.

Lash, Gary G. "DUTY WELL DONE": THE HISTORY OF EDWARD BAKER'S CALIFORNIA REGIMENT (71st PENNSYLVANIA INFANTRY). Baltimore: Butternut & Blue, 2001. 1st edition, 623p., illustrations, maps. Organized in the first weeks after Fort Sumter by Senator Edward Dickinson Baker of Oregon, close friend and political ally of Lincoln, the rolls of this regiment, though made up mostly of men from Philadelphia and New York City, were initially to be applied to the number of men to be called from the State of California. But in November 1861, after part of the regiment had been badly handled in the debacle at Ball's Bluff and Edward Baker had been killed, the Keystone State adopted the California regiment, which was re-designated the 71st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry (although many of the men continued to refer to the regiment by its original name). From Ball's Bluff, through the Peninsula, Antietam, Fredericksburg, and Gettysburg, the Californians saw enough heavy action to become part of Fox's Fighting 300. The regimental monument at Gettysburg stands at The Angle and is certainly among the most visited on the battlefield. The book includes extensive and informative appendices. As new; dust jacket. SKU 008120 $65.00

Longacre, Edward. GENERAL JOHN BUFORD: A MILITARY BIOGRAPHY. Mechanicsburg: Combined Books, 1995. 1st edition, 272p., illustrations, maps. The film "Gettysburg" introduced the general public to Union cavalry leader John Buford and his key role on July 1, 1863, the first day of the battle, but until now Civil War enthusiasts had no access to a detailed biography of the innovative cavalryman. Author Edward Longacre, an authority on Civil War cavalry, covers in detail Buford's role in campaigns against the Sioux on the western frontier, as well as the Battle of Brandy Station (the largest cavalry battle ever fought in the Western Hemisphere). Longacre has combed family records, West Point cadet files, and the National Archives to present a complete picture of this overlooked general and his successful cavalry tactics. Very good; dust jacket. Signed on book plate. SKU 002680-03 $75.00

McLean, James L., Jr. CUTLER'S BRIGADE AT GETTYSBURG. Baltimore: Butternut & Blue, 1994. 2nd edition, revised, 253p., illustrations, maps. This is a detailed study of the morning fight at Gettysburg. A thoroughly documented account of the Union cavalry's delaying action and of the opening struggle are the highlights of the book. Also included are chapters on the July 1 afternoon fighting and on the Culp's Hill conflict as related to Cutler's Brigade. This brigade holds the unique distinction of being heavily engaged all three days of the battle, and as a consequence suffered tremendous casualties. In fact, four of the six regiments lost over 50% of their men. This book is an attempt to recognize the valorous service of a brigade often ignored or misrepresented in histories of the battle. As new. Signed. SKU 005227 SOLD

57th Pennsylvania. The Peach Orchard.

Martin, James M.; Strouss, E.C.; Madge, R.G.; Campbell, R.I.; and Zahniser, M.C., compilers. HISTORY OF THE FIFTY-SEVENTH REGIMENT, PENNSYLVANIA VETERAN VOLUNTEER INFANTRY. Meadville, PA: McCoy & Calvin, 1904. 1st edition variant, 194p., Frontispiece, (Dornbusch 185). The 57th Pennsylvania fought in most of the major battles in the Eastern theater and was one of Fox's "Fighting 300". As part of the III Corps the regiment fought at the Sherfy House across from the Peach Orchard, where they suffered heavy casualties from the attack by Barksdale's Mississippi brigade. Shaken; text toned; lightly soiled boards; light shelf wear; very light chipping of extremities; else very good. SKU 007381 $275.00

Meade, George Gordon, ed. THE LIFE AND LETTERS OF GEORGE GORDON MEADE. Baltimore: Butternut and Blue, 1994. Reprint, 2 volumes, frontispieces, folding maps. These blunt and opinionated letters of Meade to his wife reveal much on the Army of the Potomac. Covering his military, political, and personal attitudes, they are edited with a connecting narrative by Meade's son. As new. SKU 001808-02 $125.00

Miller, William Lee. LINCOLN'S VIRTUES: AN ETHICAL BIOGRAPHY. New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 2002. 3rd printing, 515p., frontispiece. How did an unschooled career politician, from the raw frontier villages of early 19th century Illinois, become one of the most revered of our national icons? This is the question that William Miller explores and answers in fascinating detail in this important new book. Lincoln, Miller says, was a great man who was also a good man. It is the central thrust of this "ethical biography" to reveal how he became both, to trace his moral and intellectual development in the context of his times and in confrontation with the leading issues of the day - most notably, of course, that of slavery. Following the rough chronology of Lincoln's life up to the crucial decisions in the winter of secession, the narrative portrays his conscious shaping of himself as a writer, speaker, moral agent, politician, and statesman, showing us a man who educated himself and whose conduct rose to a higher moral standard the higher his office and the greater his power. "William Lee Miller's original, compulsively readable, and persuasive analysis of Lincoln as an 'unmoralistic moralist' who practiced an 'ethic of responsibility,' will confound cynics who believe virtuous politician is an oxymoron and debunkers who portray the sixteenth president as a racially insensitive, reluctant emancipator." - Michael Burlingame. "An extraordinary book...[and] a new and surprisingly fresh look at the historical Lincoln, whose ethical behavior is shown to be more engaging and alluring than the legend." - Douglas L. Wilson. Very good; dust jacket. SKU 001479-02 $35.00

Miller, William Lee. PRESIDENT LINCOLN: THE DUTY OF THE STATESMAN. New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 2008. 1st edition, 497p. William Lee Miller's book closely examines the great man in that hugely important office: Abraham Lincoln as president. Wars waged by American presidents have come to be pivotal historical events. Here Miller analyzes the commander-in-chief who coped with the profound moral dilemmas of America's bloodiest war. With wit and penetrating sensitivity, Miller shows us a Lincoln with unusual intellectual power, as he brings together the great themes that will be his legend—preserving the United States of America while ending the odious institution that corrupted the nation's meaning. Miller finds in this superb politician a remarkable presidential combination: an indomitable resolve, combined with the judgment that keeps it from being mindless stubbornness; and a supreme magnanimity, combined with the discriminating judgment that keeps it from being sentimentality. Very good; dust jacket. SKU 001438-03 $40.00

1st Minnesota. Cemetery Ridge.

Moe, Richard. THE LAST FULL MEASURE. THE LIFE AND DEATH OF THE FIRST MINNESOTA... New York: Henry Holt & Co., 1993. 1st edition, 345p., illustrations, maps. A magnificent, modern study of the remarkable regiment of westerners who sacrificed themselves on July 2, 1863, to delay Longstreet's attack and buy time for General Hancock to fill the gap on Cemetery ridge. Very good condition; dust jacket. Signed by the author. SKU 003772 SOLD

116th Pennsylvania. The Irish Brigade. The Wheatfield.

Mulholland, St. Clair Augustin. THE STORY OF THE 116TH REGIMENT, PENNSYLVANIA INFANTRY, WAR OF SECESSION, 1862-1865... Philadelphia: F. McManus, Jr., 1899. 1st edition, 422p., plates, illustrations, folding map. Portraits, (Dornbusch 283). An extraordinary, well-written account of the services of this fine II Corps regiment. Heavily based on General Mulholland's voluminous wartime journal. This Irish Brigade regiment participated in every major engagement of the Army of the Potomac from Fredericksburg to Appomattox. A fine account about the bloody fight of the Irish Brigade in the Wheatfield on July 2, 1863. Front hinge broken; lightly sunned; rubbed; light foxing. Inscribed and signed by the author to A. H. McClure, a Pennsylvania Republican and a Lincoln associate on July 4, 1898. SKU 003821 $475.00

Nicholson, John P., compiler. PENNSYLVANIA AT GETTYSBURG: CEREMONIES AT THE DEDICATION OF THE MONUMENTS ERECTED BY THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA TO MARK THE POSITIONS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA COMMANDS ENGAGED IN THE BATTLE. Harrisburg: E. K. Meyers, 1893. 2 volumes, frontispieces, illustrations, maps, (Dornbusch – III – 2234). An important and tough to find set, as moving as it is informative. Commission reports such as this one tell us what the veterans thought of their experiences at the battle, and what their monuments mean. Rebound in library-style boards; light foxing in text; else very good. A good, tight, reading copy of this important resource. SKU 001172-01 $175.00

15th Alabama. Little Round Top.

Oates, William C. THE WAR BETWEEN THE UNION AND THE CONFEDERACY...Dayton: Morningside Bookshop, 1985. Reprint, 808p., frontispiece, plates., (Original Dornbusch 53). A Civil War classic, by the officer of the 15th Alabama who led the Confederates attacking Little Round Top. Oates versus Chamberlain remains an enduring Gettysburg controversy. "...a monumental achievement. It assures William C. Oates a place in history." - Robert K. Krick, from his introduction. Very good. SKU 005286 $50.00

26th Wisconsin. Blocher's Knoll.

Pula, James S. THE SIGEL REGIMENT: A HISTORY OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH WISCONSIN VOLUNTEER INFANTRY, 1862-1865. Campbell: Savas Beatie, 1998. 1st edition, 485p., illustrations, maps. The 26th Wisconsin was mustered into service in Milwaukee on September 17, 1862, the bloodiest day in American history. Composed primarily of German immigrants and Badgers of German descent, the 26th fought its way into the record books as one of Fox's "Fighting 300" regiments. Part of XI Corps, the 26th's service spanned three years, having their battlefield debut at Chancellorsville. They then saw action at Gettysburg, Chattanooga, Knoxville, the Atlanta Campaign, the March to the Sea, the Carolinas and at Bentonville. This, the first history of this unit written in English, contains informative appendices, including the roster and biographical sketches. Very good; dust jacket. Signed. SKU 003109 SOLD

Pullen, John J. THE TWENTIETH MAINE. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1957. 1st edition, 338p., illustrations, maps, (Dornbusch 129). Excellent history of one of the most famous regiments of the Civil War. One of the greatest unit histories ever written. Joshua L. Chamberlain's regiment. A primary source for Michael Shaara's "The Killer Angels". Light sun; light bump; else very good. Signed. SKU 003510-01 SOLD

125th New York. Cemetery Ridge.

Simons, Ezra D. A REGIMENTAL HISTORY. THE ONE HUNDRED TWENTY- FIFTH NEW YORK STATE VOLUNTEERS. New York: Ezra D. Simons, 1888. 1st edition, 352 p., 6 ½" x 9 ½" (Dornbusch - 516). Self-published. Illustrated. Written by the chaplain of the regiment from March, 1863 to June of 1865. Notable attention devoted to the regiment's action at Gettysburg and in the battles of The Wilderness. The historical treatise includes multiple sketches and maps of battlefields and personnel from the 125th. Some photographs. An uncommon and useful regimental, with significant space devoted to their participation at Gettysburg. The 125th was part of the II Corps and fought in the Wheatfield - Peach Orchard area where the commanding officer of regiment and brigade, George Lamb Willard, was killed. A regiment which served with distinction with the II Corps at Gettysburg, Wilderness, Cold Harbor and Petersburg. One of Fox's "Fighting Three Hundred". Chipping. Inconsistent foxing. Split binding. Fanciful frontispiece and end pages. Fair. SKU 000482 $165.00

4th Texas. Little Round Top.

Simpson, Harold B. GAINES' MILL TO APPOMATTOX: WACO & McLENNAN COUNTY IN HOOD'S TEXAS BRIGADE. Waco: Texian Press, 1963. 294p., illustrations, maps. Colonel Harold B. Simpson produced Gaines Mill to Appomattox and at least three other volumes of history and compilation relating to Hood's Texas Brigade of the Army of Northern Virginia over fifteen years. The first publication in 1963 was this story of a company of infantry from Waco. The work anticipates the best of the modern unit histories by chronicling both the adventures of the men in Virginia and the lives and troubles of the people on the home front. Featuring an introduction by Roger N. Conger. The story of Company E of the 4th Texas Infantry Regiment. Light foxing and stain; dust jacket chipped with loss at top and bottom of spine and points; else very good. Inscribed and signed by author. SKU 004448-02 $125.00

Cortland: A. P. Smith, 1867. 1st edition, 429p., frontispiece, portraits, (Dornbusch – 393). A well-written, accurate regimental account and standard resource on I Corps history, including 2nd Bull Run, Chancellorsville, and Gettysburg. The regiment fought with Lysander Cutler's brigade at the railroad cut at Gettysburg. Rebound; light foxing; else excellent. SKU 005557 $195.00

Waugh, John C. REELECTING LINCOLN: THE BATTLE FOR THE 1864 PRESIDENCY. New York: Crown, 1998. 1st edition, 452p., illustrations. The dramatic story of perhaps the most critical election campaign in American history. Taking place in the midst of the Civil War, this election would determine the very future of the nation. Would the country be unified or permanently divided? Would slavery continue? "It is about time a crack journalist took on one of the great news stories of the nineteenth century...(Waugh) takes an unforgettable era and the giants who bestrode it and brings them vividly to life. I strongly recommend it." - Harold Holzer. "This is a riveting book, written in a journalistic style that will make it hard to put down." - Frank J. Williams. "...a blockbuster." - Edwin C. Bearss. Lightly sunned; else very good. $45.00
