

Abraham Lincoln Book Shop Book List, January, 2022

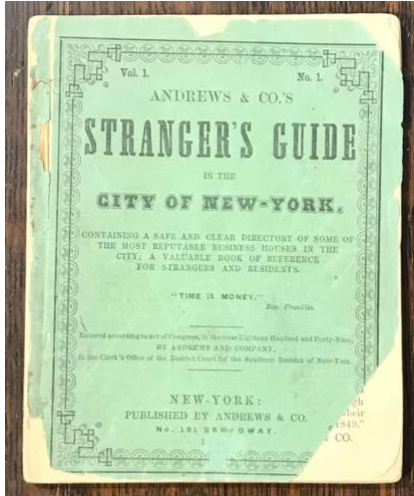

We wish everyone a Happy New Year and we look forward to bringing you many new and exciting book lists in 2022.

Our first list of the year introduces a most fascinating sub-strata of collectors' gold – pamphlets and ephemeral material. Some of the most interesting and valuable primary sources come from mediums that are not supposed to be permanent. Pamphlets were always a way for people without access to large publishing houses to get their ideas out to the public. Pamphlets are also the most cost-effective way for governments to mass-distribute important public information. What we offer below includes political argument, religious tracts and public directories. These small publications were meant to be used, and copies rarely survive to reach the modern collector in good condition. The wear and tear, in fact, form part of the charm. Your pamphlet has passed through dozens of hands over a hundred (or hundreds of) years. You are just its latest custodian.

All books listed here are one-of-a-kind and subject to prior sale. Terms of sale, including shipping charges, are detailed on the Abraham Lincoln Book Shop website – www.ALincolnBookShop.com - listed under the category called “Policies.” Again, due to the very large stock of out-of-print books we have available, these books are not sold through our online sales system. If you wish to inquire about or order a title you see here, simply call us during business hours at (312) 944-3085, or contact us through our website. Our staff will be happy to discuss or more fully describe any book you see here.

U. S. Congress. RICHARD W. MEADE. [TO ACCOMPANY BILL H. R. NO. 366]. FEBRUARY 10, 1832]. Rep. 316, House of Representatives, 22nd Congress, 1st Session. Washington, 1832. 213p., with RICHARD W. MEADE. Rep. 174, House of Representatives, 19th Congress, 1st Session. 2p. The claimant here is widow of Richard W. Meade, who was father of Union General George G. Meade. Richard Meade was involved in the U. S. acquisition of Florida. During the Peninsular war Meade aided Spain by delivering large quantities of flour, for which he was given Spanish citizenship. Meade's claims against Spain later led to his incarceration in Cadiz, but then still later led to a settlement from Spain for $491,158. Under terms of the 1819 Adams-Onis treaty acquiring Florida, these claims were supposedly payable by the U. S. Government. Meade's claims never got anywhere, and the Meade family was still trying to recover the claim from Congress into the 20th Century. SKU 007011 $125.00
